2024 CHAPTER 21

PART 1

VICTIMS OF CRIMINAL CONDUCT

PROSPECTIVE

Information relating to victims

28 Information relating to victims

In Part 2 of the Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 (prevention, investigation and prosecution of crime), after Chapter 3 insert—

“CHAPTER 3A

REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION RELATING TO VICTIMS

44A Requests for information relating to victims

- (1) A victim information request must be made in accordance with this Chapter.
- (2) In this Chapter, a “victim information request” means a request by an authorised person to another person to provide information which relates to a third person who the authorised person has reason to believe is or may be—
 - (a) a victim, or
 - (b) at risk of being a victim.
- (3) A victim information request may be made only if the authorised person—
 - (a) has reason to believe that the person to whom the request is made holds the information sought,

Status: This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Victims and Prisoners Act 2024, Cross Heading: Information relating to victims is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 01 October 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (b) has reason to believe that the information sought is relevant to a reasonable line of enquiry which is being pursued, or is to be pursued, by the authorised person or another authorised person, and
 - (c) is satisfied that the request is necessary and proportionate to achieve the purpose of preventing, detecting, investigating or prosecuting crime.
- (4) A counselling information request may be made only if the authorised person has reason to believe that the information sought is likely to have substantial probative value to a reasonable line of enquiry which is being pursued, or is to be pursued, by the authorised person or another authorised person.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection \(4\), a “counselling information request” means a victim information request to a person who provides counselling services of a description specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State by statutory instrument.
- (6) The reference in subsection \(3\)\(c\) to crime is a reference to—
- (a) conduct which constitutes one or more criminal offences in England and Wales, or
 - (b) conduct which, if it took place in England and Wales, would constitute one or more criminal offences.
- (7) Subsection \(8\) applies if the authorised person thinks that, in making the request, there is a risk of obtaining information other than information necessary to achieve a purpose within subsection \(3\)\(c\).
- (8) The authorised person must, to be satisfied that the request is proportionate, be satisfied that—
- (a) there are no other means of obtaining the information sought, or
 - (b) there are such other means, but it is not reasonably practicable to use them.
- (9) In making a victim information request or deciding whether to make such a request (including giving notice under section 44B or deciding whether to give such notice) an authorised person must have regard to the code of practice for the time being in force under section 44D.
- (10) In this section “victim” has the meaning given by section 1 of the Victims and Prisoners Act 2024.
- (11) This section is subject to sections 44B (notice requirements for victim information requests) and 44C (content of victim information requests).
- (12) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection \(5\) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

44B Notice requirements for victim information requests

- (1) The authorised person must (subject to subsection \(5\)) give notice of a victim information request to the person to whom the information sought relates (“V”).
- (2) Notice under this section must be in writing—

Status: This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Victims and Prisoners Act 2024, Cross Heading: Information relating to victims is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 01 October 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (a) specifying or describing the information sought by the victim information request,
 - (b) specifying the reason why the information is sought, and
 - (c) specifying how the information will be dealt with once it has been obtained.
- (3) Notice under this section must be given—
- (a) on or before the date on which the victim information request is made, or
 - (b) if that is not reasonably practicable, as soon as is reasonably practicable after that date.
- (4) If V is a child or an adult without capacity, notice under this section is given to V by giving it to—
- (a) a parent or guardian of V or, if V is in the care of a relevant authority or voluntary organisation, a person representing that authority or organisation, or
 - (b) if no person described in paragraph \(a\) is available, any adult who the authorised person considers appropriate.
- (5) The authorised person need not give notice under this section, or specify a particular matter when giving notice, if the authorised person considers that doing so—
- (a) is not reasonably practicable in the circumstances,
 - (b) might interfere with the investigation or enquiry for which the information is sought or any other investigation or enquiry which is being pursued, or is to be pursued, by the authorised person or another authorised person, or
 - (c) might risk causing serious harm to V or another person.
- (6) In this section—
- “adult” means a person aged 18 or over;
 - “adult without capacity” means an adult who, within the meaning of the Mental Capacity Act 2005, lacks capacity in relation to a notice under this section;
 - “child” means a person aged under 18;
 - “harm” includes physical, mental or emotional harm and economic loss;
 - “relevant authority”—
- (a) in relation to England, means a county council, a district council for an area for which there is no county council, a London borough council or the Common Council of the City of London in its capacity as a local authority;
 - (b) in relation to Wales, means a county council or a county borough council;
- “voluntary organisation” means a body (other than a public authority) whose activities are not carried on for profit.

44C Content of victim information requests

- (1) A victim information request must be in writing—

Status: This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Victims and Prisoners Act 2024, Cross Heading: Information relating to victims is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 01 October 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (a) specifying or describing the information sought,
 - (b) specifying the reason why the information is sought, and
 - (c) specifying how the information will be dealt with once it has been obtained.
- (2) The authorised person need not specify the matters mentioned in subsection \(1\)\(b\) or \(c\) if the authorised person considers that doing so—
- (a) is not reasonably practicable in the circumstances,
 - (b) might interfere with the investigation or enquiry for which the information is sought or any other investigation or enquiry which is being pursued, or is to be pursued, by the authorised person or another authorised person, or
 - (c) might risk causing serious harm to the person to whom the information sought relates or another person.

44D Code of practice

- (1) The Secretary of State must prepare a code of practice for authorised persons about victim information requests and compliance with this Chapter.
- (2) The code must in particular—
 - (a) provide that an authorised person must, when considering whether they are satisfied as required by paragraph (c) of section 44A(3) in relation to a counselling information request, start from the presumption that the request is not necessary and proportionate to achieve a purpose in that paragraph, and
 - (b) set out the steps that must be taken by an authorised person when deciding whether that presumption is rebutted.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection \(2\), a “counselling information request” has the meaning given by section 44A(5).
- (4) The code may make different provision for different purposes or areas.
- (5) In preparing the code, the Secretary of State must consult—
 - (a) the Information Commissioner,
 - (b) the Commissioner for Victims and Witnesses,
 - (c) the Domestic Abuse Commissioner, and
 - (d) such other persons as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (6) After preparing the code, the Secretary of State must lay it before Parliament and publish it.
- (7) The code is to be brought into force by regulations made by statutory instrument.
- (8) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection \(7\) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (9) After the code has come into force the Secretary of State may from time to time revise it.
- (10) A failure on the part of an authorised person to act in accordance with the code does not of itself render the person liable to any criminal or civil proceedings.

Status: This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Victims and Prisoners Act 2024, Cross Heading: Information relating to victims is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 01 October 2024. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (11) But the code is admissible in evidence in criminal or civil proceedings and a court may take into account a failure to act in accordance with it in determining a question in the proceedings.
- (12) References in subsections (2) to (11) to the code include a revised code, subject to subsection \(13\).
- (13) The duty to consult in subsection \(5\) does not apply in relation to the preparation of a revised code if the Secretary of State considers that the proposed revisions are insubstantial.

44E Authorised persons

- (1) In this Chapter, each of the following is an “authorised person”—
 - (a) a constable of a police force in England and Wales;
 - (b) a member of staff appointed by the chief officer of police of a police force in England and Wales;
 - (c) an employee of the Common Council of the City of London who is under the direction and control of a chief officer of police;
 - (d) a constable of the British Transport Police Force;
 - (e) an employee of the British Transport Police Authority appointed under section 27 of the Railways and Transport Safety Act 2003;
 - (f) a constable of the Ministry of Defence police;
 - (g) a National Crime Agency officer;
 - (h) a person designated by the Director General of the Independent Office for Police Conduct under paragraph 19(2) of Schedule 3 to the Police Reform Act 2002;
 - (i) a person who has been engaged to provide services consisting of or including the obtaining of information for the purposes of the exercise of functions by a person mentioned in any of paragraphs \(a\) to \(h\).
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations made by statutory instrument amend subsection \(1\)—
 - (a) so as to add a reference to a person;
 - (b) so as to remove a reference to a person;
 - (c) so as to modify a description of a person mentioned.
- (3) Regulations under subsection \(2\) may contain transitional, transitory or saving provision.
- (4) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection \(2\)\(a\) or \(b\) (whether alone or with other provision) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (5) Any other statutory instrument containing regulations under this section is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”
