

Relief from Additions to Tax for Certain Taxpayers' Failure to Timely Pay Income Tax for Taxable Years 2020 and 2021

Notice 2024-7

SECTION I. PURPOSE

This notice provides relief for certain taxpayers from additions to tax for the failure to pay income tax with respect to certain income tax returns for taxable years 2020 and 2021. These additions to tax for the failure to pay income tax will be waived or, to the extent previously assessed or paid, will be abated, refunded, or credited to other outstanding tax liabilities, as described in section III of this notice. Section III.D of this notice describes situations in which the relief provided in this notice does not apply.

SECTION II. BACKGROUND

Section 6651(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code (Code)¹ generally imposes an addition to the tax owed by a taxpayer for the failure to pay the amount shown as tax on a return required to be filed by the taxpayer, on or before the date prescribed for payment of such tax, including any extension of time for payment. Section 6651(a)(3) generally imposes an addition to the tax owed by the taxpayer for the failure to pay the amount required to be shown on a return that is not so shown within 21 calendar days from the date of notice and demand or 10 business days if the amount in the notice and demand is $100,000 or greater. Sections 6651(a)(2) and 6651(a)(3) apply to returns required to be filed under the authority of any provision of subchapter A of chapter 61 of the Code, (for example, §§ 6012 through 6017 requiring the filing of income tax returns) and do not apply to information returns required to be filed or furnished under part III of such subchapter (that is, §§ 6031 through 6056 of the Code). Sections 6651(a)(2) and 6651(a)(3) do not apply if the taxpayer can show that the failure to pay the tax shown or required to be shown on the return is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect.

When a taxpayer does not fully pay a tax liability, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) sends an initial balance due notice, which includes Notices CP14 and CP161.² An initial balance due notice informs the taxpayer of the amount of tax owed and instructs the taxpayer how to pay the tax liability. If the taxpayer does not pay the tax liability after receiving the initial notice, the IRS normally sends the taxpayer certain automated reminder notices.

On March 13, 2020, the President of the United States declared a national emergency in response to the ongoing Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) pandemic.³ The same day, the President also issued an emergency declaration under the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act, 42 U.S.C. 5121 et seq. (Emergency Declaration).⁴ The Emergency Declaration instructed the Secretary of the Treasury “to provide relief from tax deadlines to Americans who have been Notice CP161, Balance Due – Request for Payment or Notice of Unpaid Balance, is issued to a taxpayer who has an unpaid balance due, and explains how the IRS calculated the amount due, and states the taxpayer should contact the IRS within 10 days if the taxpayer believes the IRS has made a mistake or to contact the IRS to make a payment arrangement.

adversely affected by the COVID-19 emergency, as appropriate, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 7508A(a).” In response, the Department of the Treasury (Treasury Department) and the IRS issued a series of notices and other guidance to provide relief to affected taxpayers.

On February 9, 2022, the IRS announced in IRS News Release IR-2022-31 (IR-2022-31) the temporary suspension of the mailing of certain automated reminder notices. The IRS did not suspend the mailing of initial balance due notices. The additions to tax for the failure to pay taxes owed under §§ 6651(a)(2) and 6651(a)(3) continued to accrue for taxpayers who did not fully pay their balance due.

The IRS will fully resume issuing automated reminder notices in calendar year 2024 for balances due for taxable years 2021 and earlier, thereby resuming the normal notice process for these taxable years. The Treasury Department and the IRS have determined that the relief described in section III of this notice will help certain taxpayers, who were not sent reminder notices during the temporary suspension of certain automated reminder notices, meet their Federal tax obligations.

SECTION III. GRANT OF RELIEF

Taxpayers described in section III.A of this notice (eligible taxpayers) who have filed tax returns specified in section III.B of this notice (eligible returns) will have the accrual of additions to tax for the failure to pay taxes owed for taxable year 2020 or 2021 waived for the relief period described in section III.C (relief period) or, to the extent previously assessed or paid, will have such additions to tax automatically abated, refunded, or credited to other outstanding tax liabilities, as appropriate, for the relief period. There is no need for taxpayers to request this relief. The IRS will issue a notice to each eligible taxpayer that reflects the updated amount owed and any refund or credit resulting from the automatic abatement. The relief granted in this notice applies to additions to tax under §§ 6651(a)(2) and 6651(a)(3) for the failure to pay taxes owed, but does not apply to any amount of interest that accrues as a result of any underpayment.

Eligible taxpayers will remain liable for any addition to tax for the failure to pay tax that accrued before or after the relief period. Eligible taxpayers will also remain liable for interest that accrues during the relief period as a result of any underpayment of tax for taxable year 2020 or 2021.

D. Exceptions to Relief

The relief described in this notice does not apply to any addition to tax, penalty, or interest that is not specifically listed in the grant of relief under section III of this notice. In addition, the relief described in section III of this notice is not available with respect to any return for which the penalty for fraudulent failure to file under § 6651(f) or the penalty for fraud under § 6663 applies. The relief described in section III of this notice also does not apply to any addition to tax for the failure to pay in an offer in compromise under § 7122 that is accepted by the IRS because acceptance of the offer conclusively settles all of the liabilities in the offer under § 301.7122-1(e)(5) of the Procedure and Administration Regulations (26 CFR part 301). Finally, the relief described in section III of this notice does not apply to any addition to tax for the failure to pay that is settled in a closing agreement under § 7121 or finally determined in a judicial proceeding.
